

To create a 14-book series spanning September to June for sixth-grade girls (ages 11-12), we'll distribute the books across the 10-month school year, with some months featuring two books to accommodate the 14 themes. Each book will align with the Syllabus Framework, focusing on physical, emotional, and social development while weaving in subthemes of empowerment, self-acceptance, friendship, resilience, and inclusivity. Here's how we can structure the series:

## Series Structure: 14 Books Across 10 Months
