

Main Character:

● Mia Harper

The spunky, creative fashionista navigating puberty.

- Inspired by Louise Rennison's Georgia Nicholson.
- Personality: Witty, observant, compassionate, loyal, and fashion-forward.
- Hobbies: Art journaling, DIY fashion, TikTok dances, creative writing.

Family:

1. Mema Hazel

The quirky, wise, and supportive grandma.

- Inspired by Betty White.
- Personality: Eccentric, lively, with a knack for spontaneous song-and-dance routines.
- Hidden Talents: Roller skating, sculpting, fortune-telling.

2. Brenda Harper (Mom)

The well-meaning, spontaneous songstress mom.

- Personality: Overly enthusiastic, secretly cool (former DJ or roller derby queen).

3. Marcus Harper (Dad)

The cool, laid-back, creative dad.

- Personality: Foodie, tech-savvy, and supportive.

4. Seraphina Harper (Older Sister)

The dramatic, fashion-obsessed teen.

- Personality: Glamorous, dramatic, secretly caring.

5. Lily Harper (Younger Sister)

The mischievous prankster.

- Personality: Energetic, curious, adoring sibling with a love for glitter and dress-up.

6. Max Harper (Younger Brother)

The adorable, energetic little brother.

- Personality: Sweet, superhero-obsessed, and a constant source of chaos.

Best Friends:

1. Jada

The confident, dramatic diva.

- Personality: Bold, outgoing, and the ultimate hype woman.
- Signature Style: Bright colors, clashing patterns, and statement jewelry.

2. Emma

The thoughtful, artistic best friend.

- Personality: Gentle, creative, and introspective.
- Signature Style: Boho chic with an upcycled flair.

3. Ivy

The analytical, detail-oriented observer.

- Personality: Logical, calm, and quietly witty. Always the first to notice the small clues everyone else misses.
- Signature Style: Neatly pressed clothes in neutral tones, with a touch of geek chic—think glasses, suspenders, or a favorite satchel.

Nemesis Crew:

1. Kayla

The queen bee of the drama hive.

- Personality: Confident, dramatic, with a hidden layer of insecurity.

2. Sophie

The wannabe queen bee sidekick.

- Personality: Eager to please, insecure, but secretly kind.

School Staff:

1. Science Teacher: Biology of Puberty, Anatomy, Mental Health

Name: Dr. Priya “Growth Spurt” Gupta

- Background:
 - Former pediatrician turned middle school science teacher.
 - Specializes in adolescent health; wrote a viral blog “Puberty: The Ultimate Glow-Up” under the nickname “Dr. Growth Spurt.”
 - Openly discusses her own struggles with anxiety in middle school.
 - Teaching Style:
 - Uses funny analogies (“Hormones are like group chats—sometimes chaotic, but they get the job done!”).
 - Hosts “Ask Me Anything” sessions with a cardboard cutout of a brain named Cortex.
 - Quirk: Wears science-themed earrings (DNA strands, uterus shapes, serotonin molecules).
-

2. Social Studies Teacher: Cultural Traditions & Family Structures

Name: Ms. Amina Hassan

- Background:
 - Lebanese-American anthropologist who studied global coming-of-age rituals.
 - Traveled to 15+ countries documenting rites of passage (quinceañeras, Ojibwe berry fasts, Jewish bat mitzvahs).
 - Raised in a blended family (step-siblings, two moms).
 - Teaching Style:
 - Assigns projects like “Interview Your Elders” to share family/cultural stories.
 - Brings artifacts to class (e.g., a Māori taonga necklace, a Hanbok dress).
 - Quirk: Starts every class with a “global greeting” (e.g., “Kia ora!”, “Namaste!”).
-

3. Arts Teacher: Creative Self-Expression

Name: Ms. Clara Bennett

- Background:
 - A former children’s book illustrator who now teaches art and creative writing.

- Published a series of books about girls overcoming challenges (“The Brave Brush”).
 - Loves incorporating storytelling into her lessons.
 - Teaching Style:
 - Assigns projects like “Turn Your Awkward Phase into Art” (e.g., Jada makes a comedy skit, Emma paints mood swings).
 - Hosts “Creative Corners” where students share their work in a supportive environment.
 - Quirk: Always wears colorful scarves and carries a sketchbook everywhere.
-

4. Media Literacy Teacher: Beauty Standards & Social Media

Name: Ms. Rachel Carter

- Background:
 - A former journalist who now teaches media literacy and digital safety.
 - Wrote a popular blog debunking beauty myths and promoting healthy self-esteem.
 - Passionate about helping girls navigate the digital world confidently.
 - Teaching Style:
 - Uses memes and viral videos to teach critical thinking (“Spot the Photoshop!” challenges).
 - Hosts a “Digital Detox Day” where students swap phones for journals.
 - Quirk: Wears shirts with slogans like “Algorithm Survivor” or “DMs Aren’t Diplomas.”
-

How They Tie Into the Story

- Dr. Gupta: Becomes the girls’ mentor for their puberty project, secretly a past Whispering Willow journal contributor.
- Ms. Hassan: Helps Mia explore her Lebanese heritage through Mema Hazel’s letters.
- Ms. Bennett: Encourages Emma to vlog about puberty insecurities, leading to her viral “Real vs. Reel” series.
- Ms. Carter: Teams up with Ivy to create a “Myth vs. Fact” social media campaign targeting Kayla/Sophie’s toxic posts.

Key Figures in Oakhaven:

The town is filled with colorful, multi-dimensional characters who enrich the setting and often serve as allies, adversaries, or sources of intrigue for the Secret Sisters Society.

1. Mayor Mildred McMillan:

- A charismatic leader with a deep love for Oakhaven’s history and culture. Mayor McMillan is often an ally to the girls, offering access to historical records or providing cryptic encouragement. However, her involvement in town politics may occasionally complicate their investigations.

2. Old Man Hemlock:

- A reclusive figure living in a creaky Victorian home. His mysterious past and rumored connection to unsolved town mysteries make him a potential source of information—or suspicion. He might hold maps, artifacts, or stories that guide the girls toward crucial revelations.

3. Old Man Fitzwilliam, the Town Recluse:

- A recluse living in a creaky old mansion on the outskirts of town, Old Man Fitzwilliam is shrouded in mystery. Rumors swirl about his past, his eccentricities, and the strange noises emanating from his house at night. The girls might find themselves drawn into his enigmatic world, uncovering secrets that have been hidden for decades. Perhaps he's a former detective with a hidden case file, or his mansion holds a secret passage leading to an underground lair.

5. Mr. Garcia, the Owner of The Curiosity Shoppe:

- With his knack for storytelling and collection of oddities, Mr. Garcia provides both humor and mystery. His shop is a treasure trove of artifacts that often hold hidden clues to the Wild Willows' past or the girls' current cases.

6. Mrs. Rodriguez, the Florist:

- Observant and intuitive, Mrs. Rodriguez runs the town flower shop and often notices things others miss. Her floral arrangements might hold coded messages, or her sharp memory could provide key details in an investigation.

7. Mr. Garibaldi, the Inventor:

- A quirky resident who creates strange gadgets in his garage. Though his inventions sometimes go hilariously awry, they frequently aid the girls in surprising ways.

8. The Queen Bee (Kayla):

- Popular and influential, Kayla straddles the line between rival and reluctant ally. Her social knowledge proves useful in navigating middle school dynamics, and her involvement in a mystery could make her a surprising collaborator—or suspect.

Master Family List: Emma Rivera

Immediate Family:

1. Emma Rivera (Protagonist)

- Age: 12
- Role: Main character, artistic soul of the group.

2. Luis Rivera (Father)

- Role: Co-owner of The Colorful Canvas art supply store.
- Ethnicity: Ecuadorian.

3. Camila Rivera (Mother)

- Role: Co-owner of The Colorful Canvas art supply store.
- Ethnicity: Dominican.

4. Mateo Rivera (Younger Brother)

- Age: 8
- Role: Energetic and curious younger sibling.

Grandparents:

5. José Rivera (Paternal Grandfather)

- Location: Quito, Ecuador.

6. Carmen Rivera (Paternal Grandmother)

- Location: Quito, Ecuador.

7. Manuel Pérez (Maternal Grandfather)

- Location: Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

8. Isabella Pérez (Maternal Grandmother)

- Location: Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Master List: Ishani “Ivy” Basu’s Family

Parents

1. Aarav Basu (Father)

- Heritage: Bengali
- Occupation: Physics professor at the local university.
- Role: Encourages Ivy’s analytical and methodical nature through shared scientific discussions and experiments.

2. Priya Mehta Basu (Mother)

- Heritage: Gujarati
- Occupation: Botanist specializing in environmental conservation.
- Role: Balances Ivy’s intellectual pursuits with lessons in mindfulness and respect for nature.

Siblings

- None.

Cousin

1. Riya Mehta (Maternal Cousin)

- Parent: Aditya Mehta (maternal uncle).
- Heritage: Gujarati
- Age: 13
- Role: Ivy’s close confidante and occasional partner in curiosity-driven adventures, blending family traditions with modern-day fun.

Maternal Uncle

1. Aditya Mehta (Uncle)

- Relationship: Priya’s younger brother.
- Heritage: Gujarati
- Occupation: Tech consultant and tinkerer.
- Role: Acts as a mentor figure for Ivy and Riya, providing practical insights and connecting Ivy’s curiosity to her cultural roots.

Grandparents (Bengali Side)

1. Suraj Basu (Paternal Grandfather)

- Heritage: Bengali
- Occupation: Retired journalist with a passion for documenting untold stories.
- Role: Inspires Ivy’s attention to detail and love for uncovering hidden truths.

2. Anjali Basu (Paternal Grandmother)

- Heritage: Bengali
- Occupation: Homemaker with a talent for storytelling and traditional crafts.
- Role: Connects Ivy to her Bengali roots through food, folktales, and cultural celebrations.

Grandparents (Gujarati Side)

1. Rajesh Mehta (Maternal Grandfather)

- Heritage: Gujarati
- Occupation: Retired entrepreneur, once owned a successful textiles business.
- Role: Teaches Ivy the value of precision and perseverance through his business stories and meticulous craftsmanship.

2. Kavita Mehta (Maternal Grandmother)

- Heritage: Gujarati
- Occupation: Retired school principal.
- Role: Encourages Ivy's inquisitiveness and moral compass through her disciplined yet nurturing demeanor.

Master List: Jada Baptiste's Family

1. Parents:

- Mother: Simone Baptiste
 - Haitian-Jamaican heritage
 - Occupation: Owner of a vibrant event-planning business called "Island Inspirations"
 - Personality: Charismatic, creative, and warm, with a sharp organizational mind
 - Role: Encourages Jada's love for drama and self-expression while teaching her discipline through structure.
- Father: Andre Baptiste
 - Haitian heritage
 - Occupation: Local community theater director
 - Personality: Passionate, easygoing, and deeply connected to Oakhaven's arts scene
 - Role: Shares Jada's love for performance and helps refine her dramatic talents.

2. Sibling(s):

- Older Brother: Xavier Baptiste
 - Age: 16
 - Occupation: High school student and musician (plays the piano and steel drums)
 - Personality: Quiet, introspective, and protective of Jada despite her antics.

3. Maternal Grandparents (Jamaican Side):

- Grandmother: Yvonne Sinclair
 - Occupation: Retired school teacher and amateur poet
 - Personality: Wise, witty, and fiercely proud of her Jamaican roots
 - Role: Shares stories and riddles from her youth, inspiring Jada's storytelling skills.
- Grandfather: Winston Sinclair
 - Occupation: Retired chef, now teaches cooking classes in the community

- Personality: Gentle, nurturing, and an endless source of delicious Jamaican recipes
- Role: His kitchen is Jada's favorite place to experiment with creative ideas.

4. Paternal Grandparents (Haitian Side):

- Grandmother: Estelle Baptiste
 - Occupation: Retired nurse, now a gardener and herbal remedy expert
 - Personality: Reserved, patient, and deeply knowledgeable about Haitian traditions
 - Role: Grounds Jada with stories of resilience and herbal wisdom.
- Grandfather: Henri Baptiste
 - Occupation: Retired historian and local storyteller
 - Personality: Intellectual, curious, and vibrant despite his age
 - Role: Sparks Jada's curiosity about their Haitian heritage and the value of preserving cultural identity.